

A TRAIN GOES BY

words & music Madeleine Östlund

A train goes by
dcho dong dcho dong, etc..
rushing, rattling moving forward over hills and down the valley rushing, steaming driving onward
through the forest, over bridges

Past the fields, forever green
the fields in silent peace

The train is rolling on the train is rocking by it's passing streets and houses pushing forward on it's way the throbbing on the rail is sounding in the distance now it's coming closer as it's driving forward on it's way

dcho dong dcho dong, etc...
